Sara believes beauty is different for every individual and that achieving it every day should not be a struggle.

Purses with Purpose Fundraising Event

April 22, 2010 Bravo filled a purse with Aveda product & a $50 gift card.

Hickory Hills Hosted Arbonne Thank You Event Tammy performed buff and polishes & Rachelle gave 15 minute chair massages. We had a great turn out. Thank you to everyone who attended.

In October Bravo sponsored a Breast Cancer Awareness event. Our Staff performed haircuts, make-up, & seated chair massages. All the proceeds went to Breast Cancer Awareness. We raised over $900.00. We want to thank everyone who participated in this event.

Sara has been practicing her craft for more than 10 years professionally and been interested in the beauty and style industry her entire life. Sara began her career in Eau Claire and Menomonie where she worked for several years before deciding to challenge herself in a new and larger market – Milwaukee. During her time on the Milwaukee beauty scene, Sara was involved in fashion shows and worked closely with a Vidal Sassoon educator in a high-end salon and spa.

Sara has always been focused on staying ahead of new trends and has traveled the country to cities like New York and Chicago participating in continuing education programs where she learns the latest techniques and brings fresh style ideas home to her loyal clientele. Color has always been an important part of Sara's career.

In addition to the numerous Goldwell hair color classes she's participated in, Sara shares her expertise with others through ongoing education classes. She also specializes in Great Lengths, Cinderella and SoCap hair extensions.

Purchase a Gift Card for Mothers Day & she will receive a FREE Make-up Touch-up. Value of $25.00

RECYCLE Caps with AVEDA

Bottles are easy to RECYCLE; But Plastic Caps need special help. Drop your caps into the container at the front desk.

Thank you to everyone who attended our Spring Make-up Event! We had a great turn out.
